

DENGUE FEVER

More information:

FAST FACTS FOR RESPONDERS

- Limited local transmission of Dengue Fever has been reported in Pinellas County and around the Tampa Bay area
- Symptoms include fever, headache, joint and muscle pain, rash and rarely bleeding
- Virus is transmitted via mosquito (specifically Aedes Aegypti that bites at all times of the day)
- Responders should take extra precautions (clothing, repellent sprays, etc.) when operating outdoors especially in mosquito prone areas

TRANSMITTED BY MOSQUITO

COMMON SYMPTOMS

- High Fever (102-104F)
- Severe Headache
- Joint and Muscle Pain
- Rash
- Bleeding

HIGH RISK POPULATIONS:

- Newborns
- Pregnant patients
- Immunocompromised